Musings for the Scorpio Full Moon

These current times are often intense emotional and challenging, however if properly channelled can lead to significant transformations and changes on individual group and collective levels. Scorpio energy can help us to understand and work with such times and events. Scorpio is fixed water and as such it is like water in an underground cave and the learning is often through the tension of deeply held feeling and emotions. With Mars and Pluto as its personal and soul rulers, scorpionic experiences can be violent and deep as well as mysterious and ultimately wonderful - for when the water is freed from its underground prison it makes its way "to the sea" with much knowledge and experience which it can then share with collective whole. Then Mercury as Scorpio's spiritual ruler brings in the energies of the soul and the intuitive mind. This means that if we work through the earlier challenging deeply clearing processes, our "reward" is access to a more illuminated mind and an opening of our true inner intuition.

Here is an ancient Hindu mantra which is great to chant in these times

"From the unreal lead me to the real; from darkness lead me to light; from death lead me to immortality"

One of the confusions that happens in times such as we are experiencing, is the feeding of the astral plane from the collective unconscious. The astral plane is amplified by the emotions created by these times of crises and through our use of the internet and social media which can be great sources of information but can also fuel this plane with our emotionalisms, overreactions, desires and unconscious yearnings. The first part of the mantra above encourages us to discriminate the real from the unreal... the true prophets from the false ones and to see the real news. We do this not by following things blindly or by being driven by our own unresolved emotions but by pondering deeply with our minds and hearts. That is we use as much as we can our clear minds and our loving hearts. We need to have and express our feelings but we also need to learn how to let them go and see things with greater clarity. Our unresolved feelings our reactivity and our emotionalism are not a good or useful base for discernment and discrimination and do not come from the soul plane. True intuition arises on the higher mental planes not from the emotions and desires of the astral plane. The mantra above reveals a set of polarities and encourages us to see the real in the unreal the light in the darkness and immortality in death.

Meg Huppatz and I are helping coordinate a link up event at the Aquarius Healing and Education Centre in support of the Aboriginal elder Uluru/Solstice event for the healing of the Earth and for people from Adelaide who will be attending it. This event will be hosted by Meg Tscharke. Please let me/us know if you want to be involved with this planning/coordination. So far, the ideas for the group linkup are to create a mandala using the cardinal cross as base. A circle around a cross creates the symbol for the earth ⊕ so using this as a base for the event directly connects it with the theme of healing for Mother earth. We plan to use sacred stones from around the planet as well as gemstones and crystals and other power items from nature. The building of the mandala will be a group project starting at this the Scorpio full moon and will be built up and developed to used in ceremony at the solstice event. So please look around you and see what calls and bring it along.
